

ENERGY VISION CLUSTER TABLE

Member	Strategic Foci	Core Competencies & Assets & Existing Resources Available to Others	Activities - Willing to Play role in Process, Political, or Public Campaigns? Willing to Play role in Strategy, Communications, Coordination?
Canadian Environmental Law Association	Legal Representation, Law and policy reform, Public Legal Education and Outreach with respect to toxic substances, hazardous products and environmental health.	- Research and issue expertise. - Relationship with academic and legal community. - In depth knowledge of the OEB, ERT and EA process. - Process expertise - Political expertise - Has charitable arm for donations. - Willing to act as 'financial trust' - Existing relationship with environmental media Co-author of the Power for the Future Report, 2004, CELA / Pembina Co-publisher of the Power for the Future Report Card, December 2005 CELA/ Pembina Website www.cela.ca posts media releases, submissions, reports on sustainable energy vision and on nuclear phase-out CELA e-bulletin approximately one to two times per month on significant environmental law developments	- willing to play a leadership role in the process arena - sits on the Energy Vision Mgmt committee - willing to play a role in strategy - provision of legal advice and representation, formally and informally - provision of public legal education and outreach
Conservation Council of Ontario	- Social marketing campaign focused on 'We Conserve' – moving the conservation message into the mainstream - CCO focuses on promoting solutions - positive messaging - CCO uses public support for conservation to lever regulatory and fiscal support	- Existing 'We Conserve' campaign - Lots of open doors with industry, retailers and associations - Lots of open doors to the Ontario government - Mandate to engage various stakeholders - Potential to build a constituency to support demand reduction and green power and thereby to question nuclear	- Interested in working on the 'positive spin coordinated communications plan - Willing to bring together a group of industry folks to talk about the issues. - Willing to convene a range of groups around the issue

Ontario Sustainable Energy Association	• Securing policies, financing and capacity building resources for the community power sector • Current projects and campaigns include: Standard Offer Contracts, Cooperative Fund for Community Power, the Community Power Education and Training program • Misson: supporting the development of community based renewable energy projects towards a sustainable energy economy.	• Broad membership base across Ontario • Standard Offer Campaign • "Powering Ontario Communities" report • "Landowner's Guide for Wind Power" report • Expertise in Renewable Energy Policy • International relationships and associations • Hosting World Wind Energy Association Conference in 2008 - community power theme • Renewable Energy Project Development experience, Technical expertise • Education and training - focus on all aspects of community power project development training.	• Willing to play a role in strategy and coordination • Willing to contribute to communications
Citizens for Renewable Energy	• An information and advocacy organization striving to inform the public and governments of the great political potential of renewable energy generation and conservation to replace fossil and nuclear energy	• Almost 2 decades of nuclear energy research and involvement in regulatory hearings. • Networking with U.S. and European energy information services. • Expertise with renewable energy installations • Networking with German and other European renewable energy organizations. • Well known in government circles	• Willing to play a role in process, political or public campaigns • Willing to play a role in Strategy, Communication, Coordination.
Toronto Environmental Alliance	• Local campaigns with a focus on Toronto. • We are explicitly anti-nuclear	• Experience leading winning municipal & provincial campaigns. • Relationships with diverse partners (labour, anti-poverty, housing activists) • Large membership base. • Experience mobilizing and excellent relationships with media (media savvy staff) • Good expertise on conservation and energy efficiency in particular, how to make Toronto a city less reliant on a hard energy path. • Ability to deliver a more grassroots kind of campaign	• TEA is in transition! We are limited right now but can: • Contribute to strategy • Help participate in education & outreach • Organize local Toronto (but limited) • Do media work • Provide "local" Toronto solutions
Citizens Environmental Alliance of Southwestern Ontario	• Advocacy and educational outreach on a wide variety of local and regional environmental issues, including: air quality, waste management, natural areas protection and resource conservation	• Experience in working in regional and binational networks to advance environmental issues • Resource centre and citizens information clearinghouse • Outreach to public and membership through various media including website and newsletter • Nonprofit and charitable status • Staff and volunteer support	• Willing to offer support in public outreach and advocacy campaigns

Northwatch	• Generalist organization focussed on environmental and social concerns in northeastern Ontario; priority areas of work are energy, nuclear issues, mining and forestry, responding to waste import/dump schemes	• Membership and network of contacts throughout northeastern Ontario, including with elected officials, media and public • Experienced participant in provincial and federal Eas and CNSC proceedings, including OH D/SP EA, AECL, NFWMP EARP • Quarterly regional newsletter, general website and web site dedicated to nuclear waste issues • Northeastern Ontario campaign group in place on nuclear waste issues	• Participates in Nuclear Waste Watch and in Energy Visions • Willing to take a lead role in coordinating/delivering campaign strategies regionally (ie northeastern Ontario) • Willing to provide review/comment/background on nuclear waste issues and on proposals and projects sited/proposed for northern Ontario, including renewables, transmission and nasty nuclear
Sierra Club of Canada	• Member/volunteer driven organization working on the broad spectrum of environmental issues. • National office and the Sierra Youth Coalition based in Ottawa and chapter offices in Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Edmonton and Victoria. • Strong links with Sierra Club US.	• Experienced campaigners. • Grassroots network of groups and members. • Broad range of experience on energy issues. • Effective Canada-US network. • Media skills. • Political expertise and contacts.	• Will campaign for Energy Vision goals • Willing to participate in the Energy Vision strategic process. • Information sharing. • Media outreach. • Grassroots development around Energy Vision goals. • Education and research.
Women's Healthy Environment Network (WHEN)	• Education on environment/occupational health issues, focus on women's and children's health including those relating to energy options • Focus on safe alternatives to toxic, polluting products and processes • Analysis and Action for primary prevention and protection in the face of scientific uncertainty - promotion of the Precautionary Principle • Promotion of environmental justice and ecosystem health on a peaceful planet	• Education, outreach, and program planning in collaboration with community groups, health professionals and educators • Partnerships with health and environmental coalitions • Partnerships with cancer prevention organizations - locally, provincially and nationally • Use of film as a tool for education for social change ie. Exposure: Environmental Links to Breast Cancer and the forthcoming: A Toxic Trespass: Children's Health and the Environment • Creation of accompanying materials such as "Taking Action for a Healthy Future" •	• Willing to play a role in strategy and development of public educational campaigns for nuclear awareness and safe energy • Willing to continue to assist local constituents and their MPPs with the organization of public meetings on nuclear/safe energy in their ridings (6 so far) • Willing to continue the organization of an independent health cost study on the health impacts of ionizing radiation funded by the provincial government

International Institute of Concern for Public Health	• Believing that an environment that promotes health is a human right, we do research into environmental health hazards caused by chemical and radiation contamination of our biosphere • Helping communities assess and improve their environmental health status • Alerts and informs of health hazards related to commercial, military and industrial products • Independent of government or industry, the Institute provides the evidence and documentation needed by survivors of environmental disasters	• Designing and implementing participatory research to determine whether or not there is a health problem in a population and possible cause • Creating baseline studies that can be used for monitoring early indications of physical change • Educating professionals in the use of "community self-diagnosis" tools • Critiquing scientific research • Disseminating research by publishing in scientific journals and/or on our website • Coordinating the efforts of professionals from diverse fields working on the same project (e.g. medical, engineering and legal) • Providing expert witness testimony in lawsuits • Responding to requests for consultation from governments on environmental health issues • Education of individuals, the general public, organizations and government • Organize and provide or participate in conferences, teach-ins and other activities related to environmental health • Advocate for individuals, groups or populations around environmental health issues	• Can play a role in process and public campaigns • We advise government but remain aloof from politics • Limited role in strategy, communications and coordination for e-v.
---	--	---	--